

On-campus Accommodation

On-campus accommodation is available at a much-reduced rate: booking link to come soon!

Examples of a single/double room and twin set up. All rooms are en-suite.

30 en-suite rooms on Penryn campus are reserved for conference attendees, just a few minutes' walk from where the conference sessions will be held.

Rooms will be charged at £45.00 per night and are available from Mon 24th June with options to depart either on Fri 28th or Sat 29th June.

All bedrooms are priced per room per night and occupancy is a maximum of two people per room. We will do our best to provide you with the room set up you request but no promises for shared rooms.

The price does not include breakfast but guests can purchase their own breakfast on site, or there is a communal kitchen shared between rooms and a campus shop selling basic food stuffs.

Accommodation will be first-come, first served basis. Payment in full must be made for your booking to be reserved. Cancellation with a full refund will be possible until 25th May 2024, after which we will do our best to refund your accommodation if you have to cancel, but cannot promise a full refund. A booking link and further details on booking options will be provided in the coming weeks.
